

Theme	End zone game
4V4 GAMES CIRCUIT: LET THE GAME BE THE TEACHER THIS GAMES PRACTICE DEVELOPS THE PLAYERS THROUGH PLAYING SMALL SIDED GAMES. EACH GAME SENDS THE PLAYERS DOWN A CERTAIN LEARNING PATH. HALF FIELD POSSESSION – POSSESSION WITH NUMBERS UP END ZONE GAME – POSSESSION TO PLAY FORWARD 4 GOAL GAME – POSSESSION TO PLAY FORWARD AND WIDE 2 GOAL GAME – COMBINATION OF THE PREVIOUS THREE GAMES		Two teams Two end zones Each team attack one end zone and defend the other end zone The aim of this game is to dribble the ball into your opponents zone in order to score a goal.
Lay out	4 goal game
	This is the lay out of the pitch The pitch has many games within the same set up and allows for maximised training time for the players This practice looks at four of the games that this lay out includes		Two teams Four mini goals Each team attacks and defends two mini goals The aim of this game is to pass into your opponents mini goal in order to score
Half field possession	2 goal game / random games
	The coach passes to the team of his choice and then calls out the name of the player to defend 4v1 If the four players are passing the ball well and keeping possession, the coach calls a 2nd name out to make the game 4v2. The aim is to get all four players inside the area However if the ball is given away then the roles are reversed and the player giving the ball away must now defend 4v1 at the opposite end		Two teams Two big goals and two keepers (rush gk if no keepers are available) Play a normal game But, a different times during the game the coach calls out one of the previous games. The teams must react quickly and start playing the game that is called. This random practice will enable the coach to see how each player reacts and can quickly change focus to the new game
